the Comet

Dear Miss Hitchcock

I just want to tell you that your one of the nicest teachers in the whole school. I really mean it. I hope we can have as much fun next year as we did last year.

Lots of luck.

Foreword

You don't know me, but if you ever see a busy guy, notebook in hand, pencil stuck behind an ear, pockets filled with flash bulbs and nose slightly out of joint from getting it in other people's business, that's me.

Although you've never seen me, I know you. I know about everything that's gone on this year. I know about the times you've ditched or chewed gum in class, I've sneaked into secret meetings, crashed parties, hidden back stage, listened at doors, and in general, made a nuisance of myself.

So I thought since I had all this store of interesting information and since no one could afford my price to keep it quiet, it was too good to keep to myself. In the following pages is the lowdown of my year of snooping and snap taking. And now for the expose of life at Lindsay High just turn the next few pages where I tell all. If you've been good, you shouldn't be too embarrassed.

Mr. Castle and his secretary, Mrs. Pettit.

Who are you? Oh, you came to ask me what Lindsay High School was like at mid-point in the twentieth century?

Well, to those who have just completed the 1949-50 school year the memory is vivid. Fifty years from now when the year 2000 rolls around, the question will assume more significance.

The year 1950 has aroused a great deal of interest in reviewing the course of events and the activities which have taken place during the first half of the present century. People are prone to look backward and forward and this interest seems to be most pronounced at the beginning, ending, and at the mid-point of a century.

For this reason the 1950 Comet seems to me a particularly important book. It is very likely that the mid-year of the century will be accepted as typical of this segment of time. If in years to come, people are curious as to what high school life was like in Lindsay, I am sure that the 1950 Comet will often be selected as the edition best typifying the era.

Therefore, this very fine Comet is more than just a school yearbook for its conserves for the future a pictorial representation of high school life today.

I want to congratulate the Comet staff and their adviser, Miss Williams.

The people responsible for new seating in auditorium: John Moore, Bill Marble, Jay Webb, A. A. Daniells, and Mrs. Paul Lowery, members of our school board.

Hey! Hey! You! Come over and let me in on all this gossip. You know I work here, too. There are some things students keep from me as long as they can. And there are some things I keep from them until the last day of school. But we're friends and I'd like to know why you're running all around, talking into people's ears and listening with the other.

Oh, it's the Comet! Sure, I should have known. Someone has to be very busy on the Comet all year if it is to be a book we'll cherish for life. Sure, you go right ahead and run around and do whatever you need to do. Yes, I'll even excuse you from class as much as I regret to, just so you can do a bang up job.

Now, let me tell you something. I think Lindsay High is one of the finest schools in this broad San Joaquin Valley. Here are some good reasons why: First, we work together in a most friendly manner. Lindsay has the kind of system that is considered the best; a unified district, with one school board, one superintendent, one bus system, all leading to a spirit of unity and friendliness. This means friendly students, teachers, nurse, custodians, cook, and bus drivers.

Sure, Lindsay is a fine place in which to live and that's the reason we're going to have an excellent Comet.

Seniors

It's wonderful to be a senior at long last. I remember three years ago we thought we'd never make it, but here we are.

We've had to put up with a lot — teachers, two senior classes, and school in general. We have lost some people along the way and have taken others in, but most of us have struggled up to the top together. And even though you may not like us, you have to admit we've earned the right to be seniors.

We've ditched, had fun, studied once in a while, been in more than our share of trouble and no doubt have worried the administration and faculty a lot, but looking back, it has been worth it.

You'll never get us to admit it, but we will miss the school and our classmates for after all, these ave been part of our lives for three long years. I'd rather die than have it known, but there will be a ttle nostalgia as we march out for the last time June 9.

This class of '50 is to me the best class ever with the most wonderful people anywhere in it. I'm a enior, you see.

Juniors

Looking over junior class sweaters are Mr. Hanigan, adviser; President J. Earley; and Secretary M. McCrane.

Treasurer M. Thorpe and Vice - President M. Thomas examine treasurer's report.

Whew! Just . . . let me . . . catch my breath! You'd be winded, too, if you'd tried to keep up with the junior class.

The first day of school, I perched myself on Solomon Aristotle's feathery back, and then away he flew to look over his new charges. Now, the class of '51 had a great respect for old Sol's wisdom, so when he said, "Get that Student Body card," they just rushed to get in line; and the same with joining the Red Cross.

With the class officers, J. Earley, president; M. Thomas, vice-president, M. McGrane, secretary, and M. Thorp, treasurer, leading them the Juniors plunged in and did a grand job with their booth Armistice Day.

The junior play was said by many to be the best play the high school has seen in years. Sol laughed so hard I almost fell off. Class spirit came through again in the March of Dimes, when the Juniors topped the list. Blue was the color chosen for class sweaters, and each has an emblem with Sol himself on it.

Mr. Hanigan, Mrs. Ketelsen, Mr. Bridges, and Mrs. Woodward helped Juniors especially on the Junior-Senior Banquet and Prom. Co-chairman of this big affair were Hutzel Mooneyham and Marilyn Vaughn. (The Seniors will long remember the night spent June 1.)

Old Sol had to borrow my handkerchief as the class of '51 decorated for graduation, their last official act as Juniors.

The gym lent itself to the charm and beauty of the old colonial South. Fragrance of magnolias and rich voices of darkies took the guests back to that graceful period. The following evening was danced away to the dreamy music of Foster Edward's orchestra.

Sophomores - Song

Being very interested in what those little sophs were up to, I sauntered around, and after asking a few questions, I found that handsome Dick Neece was their prexy.

A few more questions told me that the sophs' first project was the annual Sophomore Amateur Hour, well, they proved to be a very talented class 'cause a soph, Jackie Harth, took first and Nila Specht, Dick Becker and Randy Scott also took four out of the six prizes. Cute Peggy Depew was mistress of ceremonies.

long way to go

The sophs sure did a bang-up job on selecting their class rings this year.

That whitewashing the "L" was sure a job, but what fun ! ! Those boys threw all the little girls in a dirty ditch and everyone got whitewash all over 'em.

I'm told these sophs are really a "go-get-'em" class and anyone could believe that by the vim and vigor. Here's to you swell kids!!

Student body president was Phil Longacre. Here he's seen as scholar, athlete, flirt, ard man about town.

Big Shots

Well, Mr. Snooper, so you want to know what made our student cabinet work. It worked as a machine; every part was a working part.

Take for instance, Dick Maas, our vice-president; he was a spark plug to our organization and was always ready to take over when asked. Then there was Mae Anderson, who was the battery to this machine. She was accurate and reliable as our secretary. Mariko, as our treasurer, worked like a well-timed distributor, always accurate and efficient. Bob Kirkman, was the piston in this machine, working hard for everyone's pleasure in the assemblies. Our carbureter was Marilyn Vaughn, who mixed fun into all of her dances and social affa'rs. Then we had the fuel that makes our team run, our yell-leader, Charlcie Wil-

B. Pieschke,c ommissioner of athletics, Mr. Hartman and C. Wilkerson, yell leader. The three class presidents, D. Neece, D. Maas, J. Earley. M. Adams and G. Fox, boy's and girls' representative.

Rule

kerson.

The block of the engine was made up of hard working members such as Bill Pieschke, our athletic manager; Laureen Frasher and Betty Jo Depee, our "Comet" editors; Wanell Richey, the "Echoing L" editor; Joe Earley and Dick Neece, the junior and sophomore class presidents, respectively; Gary Fox, boys' representative; and Merlene Adams, girls' representative.

Mr. Hartman was the mechanic who could be called upon to give added mileage to our machine.

The student body was the driver who directed us on our journey.

At this time I wish to thank everyone who has contributed to the success of this year.

Comet - Year's

We finally persuaded the Comet snooper to let us, the editors, say a few words. The year 1949-50 is now at a close. We present to you the year's record of happenings as the Comet snooper told it. He saw all, heard all, and told all. We hope you like the annual. We have done our best.

The whole book would have been impossible without our able adviser Miss Williams. Her suggestions and help were always welcome. We surely did appreciate it.

Thanks for the art work goes to the art staff. Division pages were done by Pat Roy, our art editor, Mariko Sekiguchi, Hutzel Mooneyham, and Margaret Thomas. You can thank Anita Carr for the clever end-sheets. They're really swell, Anita. Joan Givan did all the special figures that run through the book. They were just what we needed. The special printing was done by Evelyn Watanabe and Arlayne Jensen. It was a hard job, but you did it well.

Lowdown

Our literary staff consisted of Lorna Campbell, Bob Fridlund, Marilyn Vaughn, Wanell Richey, Marguerite McGrane, and Jackie Harth. Thanks, kids, for all your slaved-over-assignments. We couldn't have done without you. Special thanks to Cathryn Wilson who typed all those assignments.

Most of the pictures in the book were taken by our photographers Norman Cates, Hutzel Mooneyham, and George Fox. They were really on-the-spot boys. We, the editors, think their pictures are terrific, but we will let you be the judge.

Darrell Quessenberry, Nila Specht and Dick Mayberry diligently sold the Comets. We thank you so much.

The Comet Staff has worked all year to give you a book that you would enjoy. We sincerely hope we have pleased you.

I couldn't find out very much about the bunch of brains known as the C.S.F. (that's California Scholarship Federation) because they only let smart people in there. However, they told me they really have a lot of fun. They got out of school, traveled to conventions, went up to the snow, and had parties every now and then.

When they went down to Wasco for the fall convention, they won a trophy for being the chapter with the most members present. Shows how smart Lindsay is!

I guess they worked pretty hard as the club though, too, so I'd better give credit to the officers for both semesters.

The first semester Bob Fridlund was president, Nila Specht secretary-treasurer, and Jane Pollock social chairman.

Gary Fox was president the second semester, Beth Nesalhous secretary-treasurer, Mary Ketelsen social chairman, and Lorna Campbell publicity chairman.

So you see it really does pay to be smart, but as I said before, you couldn't prove it by me.

I bet you didn't know what those industrious students, who have their home in room 15, were up to. Well, I'm going to tell all.

They were the ones who put out a really super Echoing L each week with Wanell Richey as editor and Miss Allison Hostetter, adviser.

Wanell sure kept the kids on their toes with her swell editorials. And news editor, Laureen Frasher, was almost as nosy as I was. Art editor Lorna Campbell filled in space with her clever cartoons. Feature editor Pat MacIntyre kept us up on all the gossip. Bill Tannehill, exchange editor, kept files straight and sports editor, Dick Maas, turned out good copy every week.

The ones who went out and got the news were reporters E. Morris, E. Perkins, K. Phillips, J. Pollock, M. Thorp, M. McClure, M. McGrane, J. Harth, G. Hall.

And to see the fur really fly, I went down to the typing room Friday morning where M. Anderson, head technician, and D. Rollins got out the paper.

But they were always too busy to notice me.

Girls' League

Since I'm a boy, I'm not allowed to attend the Girl's League meetings; but because I'm a curious boy, I found ways to see what was going on.

The first day of school I was given a student handbook put out by the Girls' League.

I knew they were going to have a meeting in the library so I sneaked into the textbook room and peeked through the keyhole. Merlene Adams was holding the gavel and ably conducting matters; then Kay Phillips read the minutes and Beti Yoshida gave the treasurer's report. I noticed that Vice-president Wanell Richey was in charge of the program. Standing committee chairmen who presented their reports were Joan Givan, Carolyn Dunham, and Doloris Rollins.

The girls gave us fellas a treat several times by inviting us to their meetings. The special occasions included a patriotic program, one for Christmas, and the annual Spring Sing.

Above you have all the girls enrolled in Lindsay High.

All of us

One Saturday last fall I was meandering around the campus when I saw a whole host of strange girls filing into the auditorium. I said I was part of the entertainment so I was admitted to one of the most successful conventions I've ever seen or heard. The theme was "Golden Gaieties" and the day ended perfectly with a coke party. Lindsay's official delegates were Merlene Adams, Wanell Richey, Carolyn Dunham, Charlcie Wilkerson, and Pat MacIntyre.

I acted as the photographer's helper the rest of the year and saw just about everything. The girls all went Christmas caroling to the Springville Sanitorium and they sponsored rummage sales, and sold cakes and cookies every Thursday at noon, kept the showcases bright, the school beautiful, and sent out cards for illness. The Girls' League has done more than its part in making this a successful year.

G. A. A.

Whew! I've really had a time keeping up with the Girls' Athletic Association this year. Besides their seasonal sports, which includes volleyball, basketball, hockey, and softball, this energetic group, lead by President Eleanor Perkins, undertook a relentless campaign to earn $200. That money was put together with $150 provided by the student body to paint the brick walls and bleachers in the gym.

The first money-making scheme was put on during a noon hour when the men on the faculty played the G.A.A. girls in a hilarious volleyball game.

That was only the beginning! Three free periods were auctioned off; cookie sales were put on every week; and a candy drawing was held. Little by little, under the watchful eye of their adviser, Miss Mary Hitchcock, and the support of the cabinet, which includes Charlcie Wilkerson, vice-president; Pat MacIntyre, secretary; and Elva Morris, Girls' League representative, they achieved their goal.

Five members of this busy group got to work and did a song and dance in the Spring Sing that won a five dollar second prize for the G.A.A.

Upon getting permission from the Block L prexy, Conrad Fraps, I attended a very interesting meeting.

At the beginning of the school year the Block L organization, I found, was very inactive. The few members of the Block L decided that by having a more formal initiation and permitting the athletes with "B" class letters to join they could enlarge their club. A combined initiation and dance was planned and held in the gym. This initiation brought thirty-six new and interested members in.

Then came the election at which C. Fraps was chosen as their leader with C. Depew vice president, B. Smith as secretary, and George Fox to handle the money.

Great plans proceeded to get under way until now they have a new constitution. I went along on their party to Hot Springs and had a lot of fun. One of these bright boys handed the suggestion to the Student Cabinet that the school buy the captain's stars instead of the individual boys.

This organization of the Block L has come a long way and I know that everyone is very proud of them.

Hmm, wonder what's behind this door? Oops! Didn't mean to interrupt a meeting. Oh, well, why not stay and see what's cooking.

Seems I'm in the middle of a Red Cross meeting, a worthy organization everyone's urged to join. This year certainly has been a successful one. Just listen to all the swell things they've done: funds were raised especially for the care of a nine-year-old Greek orphan girl adopted by the students; gift boxes, over thirty, were packed and sent to our less fortunate friends across the seas; contests were held between classes to obtain 100% membership and just numerous other things.

Who heads this organization? A bunch of swell students; Up there in front is the president, Bob Fridlund, vice president is Allan Black, over there is secretary, Henrietta Ashcraft; treasurer, Mariko Sekiguchi and publicity chairman, Wanell Richey. Council members are Elva Morris, Wilma Golightly, Bob Kirkman, Leslie Nelson, and Arlayne Jensen.

Gee, the meetings' over now but I'm sure glad I happened in; we should all know more about this wonderful group; gives me lots to think about as I go snoopin' on my way.

Junior Statesmen

When I dropped in at a meeting of the L.H.S. Junior Statesmen not so long ago, I learned a lot about a lot of things. Those kids really knew what's going on in the world today! They discussed current, national and world affairs right and left, and had several lively debates, showing they take an active interest in both sides of various problems. They knew all about the different laws, bills, and resolutions being passed, and what the federal and national governments were doing, and their parliamentary procedure was really something to watch!

These Junior Statesmen were quite active around school this year, too, I found. They had parties, and ran booths at football and basketball games. A tri-chapter Junior Statesman meeting was held here this year and various important folk have been guest speakers at meetings.

During the first semester of the 1949-50 year Jill Rush was president; Bob Fridlund, vice-president; Mary Ketelsen, secretary; Elva Morris, treasurer; and Norman Cates, parliamentarian.

Bob Fridlund was president during the second semester; Joe Earley, vice-president; Marilyn Vaughn, secretary; James Harding, treasurer; and Elva Morris, parliamentarian. Miss Allison Hostetter was adviser.

Here is the entire masculine half of the population.

Boys' Federation

One day I was dozing off on one of the shelves in the library, when the tromp, tromp of boys' feet tromped right into my dreams. I opened one eye and then sat right up to listen. This was the meeting of the Boys' Federation, a very young school organization. Composed of all Lindsay High's boys, it just drew up a constitution this year and got started making itself known. H. Mooneyham served as president, and Gary Fox represented them on the student council.

Every year, two of their junior members are selected by the faculty to attend Boys' State at Sacramento.

With the boys united, Mr. Robbins as their adviser, and their plans for next year worked out (I did some snooping), my prediction is, "They're going places!"

Top: President H. Mooneyham and Gary Fox talk things over with adviser F. Joe Robbins. Below: Must be an interesting meeting.

This is all the Y-Teens.

Y-Teen

It wasn't hard to find out all about Y-Teens because this organization's one of the biggest and busiest connected with the school. These girls were alway doing something, and they were responsible for so many important activities around here that I guess we just couldn't get along without 'em. During the year they had a slumber party, a backward banquet for football teams, and kids' Christmas party, a winter formal, and a carnival, to name a few things they did.

Jill Rush was president this year and her cabinet included Marguerite McGrane, vice-president; Beti Yoshida, secretary; Merlene Adams, treasurer; Pat MacIntyre, program chairman; Anita Carr, social chairman; LaVernia Craig, service chairman; Jane Pollock, membership chairman; Lorna Campbell, publicity chairman; Eleanor Perkins, carnival chairman; Charlcie Wilkerson, Girls' League representative; Kay Phillips, song leader; Carolyn Dunham and Nila Specht, sophomore representatives.

The Cinco de Mayo committee plan a wonderful program.

I had a little trouble in the Spanish Club meetings; they all spoke so much Spanish in there that I couldn't quite understand what was going on, but they seemed to be having a lot of fun.

With Mrs. Ketelsen, adviser, the bunch attended a real Spanish show this year, and they also had a big Cinco De Mayo banquet.

Joline Osborne was president of the first year group, Joan Givan, vice-president; Sara Barrera, secretary-treasurer; and Mary Ketelsen, song leader. President of the second year Spanish Club was Laureen Frasher; vice-president, Wanell Richey; secretary-treasurer, Kay Bannister; and song leader, Eleanor Perkins.

Spurs - Girls' Service Organization

Do you ever wonder who makes all the big shindigs possible; who it is that works behind the scenes? I want to introduce you to the worthiest among worthy organizations, Spurs and Stirrups.

The original group of Spurs was founded in 1942 by Miss Helen Burr, sophomore adviser. The purpose of the organization was to act as an incentive for doing all the odd jobs that sophomore girls are called upon to do

In September 1947 Stirrups and Toppers were organized for the junior and senior girls.

The sophomores earn a spur for their first year's service. They are entitled to a stirrup if they continue to work through their junior year and then are honored with top hats as a symbol of three years' service.

The main duty of Spur President Henrietta Ashcraft and Stirrup President Lorna Campbell is to act as representative on the Girls' League Cabinet.

At every dance or school sponsored affair you will find members of these organizations taking an active interest in the working and planning. Worthiest among worthy, indeed, are the Spurs and Stirrups!

Card Plebes - Boys' Service Club

Now when it comes to dances, parties, leading yells and the like, the girls are pretty much in charge, taking care of the planning and fussing. But I find that when it comes to representing the school in football, in basketball, lifting and carrying props, cleaning up, or other kinds of hard work, a certain group of ambitious, interested males step quietly onto the scene and keep the situation well in hand.

This group is none other than the strong, silent half of the service department that includes Card Plebes, Cards Junior Grade, and Cards Senior Grade. These groups were organized in 1947 to create student interest in the school and to do many useful things.

After a sophomore boy becomes active in the interest of the school and becomes a Card Plebe, he may continue his service in his junior year and become a Card Junior Grade. For three years of service to the school he is entitled to Card Senior Grade membership.

The hardworking boys who keep track of the number of points earned are Leslie Nelson, Merrill Ross, and Richard McFadzen.

Seniors Go "Foot-Loose"

"Queen Elizabeth," mascot of the determined Class of '50, is sleeping over there after a busy year. It looks as if she's dreaming—shall we join her?

Where am I? Why are all these people here? I'll go read that poster and find out what's going on!

"The Class of '50 presents "Footloose," a play in three acts. Cast, dramatics class; director, Carol Norman; time, "Oh my, I'm almost late; I'll have to gallop!"

The curtain's going up . . . Here we have C. Wilkerson and D. Hammer, teenage sweethearts; P. Roy, grouchy but kind-hearted maid; M. Vaughn, older sister; D. Maas, the essence of youth; W. Bivens, young medical student; A. Carr and E. Wilson, parents of the energetic family; D. Houk, bad little girl; M. Adams, pretty seamstress; G. Lady, fake Romeo; B. Reeves, reckless driver; B. J. Depee, cranky old widow; D. Word, Marilyn's attorney sweetheart.

I wish my parents would go on a world cruise and leave me footloose. Boy, what fun!

This was really a Senior play because all the Seniors were really behind it working extra hard making signs and writing publicity to fill the auditorium for the performance.

Juniors Have "One Wild Night"

'Twas the big night at last, and the mighty Junior Class was about to present its class play, "One Wild Night." What an appropriate one, too, for it was Friday the 13th.

With a black cat swinging on the curtain pulls and little gremlins spilling make-up and breaking zippers, I didn't blame Mrs. Woodward and the cast for feeling a little shaky.

D. Word was all alone in the room and looked mighty sick. Then M. Vaughn, the fainting maid, came sneaking down the stairs. B. Reeves was waiting over in the corner for his cue. He was a newcomer to L.H.S. this year and made a hit as the "veddy" English butler.

M. Adams enjoyed being the "wealthy old aunt," and her companion, P. MacIntyre, seemed to be the only healthy member of the cast. E. Wilson and B. Yoshida went on to treat the "ailing" D. Word.

All the scenery shook as D. Maas pounded his way into the house to find D. Houk, his sweetheart. What happened to D. Hammer and M. McClellan, those musical moving men? Oh, bedlam reigned over the whole evening, and C. Wilkerson with her trumpet, bustling A. Carr, sophisticated P. Roy, singer B. J. Depee, gangster G. Lady, and officer W. Bevins all helped make it really "One Wild Night."

No jinx could stop the Class of '51!

Top left corner: B. Reeves brought the ailing D. Word some medicine while nurse B. Yoshida and Doctor E. Wilson took care of their patient. Top: Sleeping beauties were D. Maas, P. McIntyre M. Adams (on stair) and B. Reeves. Center: C. Wilkerson livened it up with the help of her horn with D. Houk, D. Hammer, M. McClellan, and A. Carr. This was a very drowsy play as G. Lady, W. Bivens, P. Roy, M. Vaughn and B. Depee, were asleep too.

Chorus - What Beautiful Music

One day I decided to see what went on in a room at the back of the school. I had often heard such nice sounds from there, so when no one was looking I became a new member of the chorus.

William Whalen stood up with a long stick. I was frightened at first, but I learned he used it to direct.

Now I don't know anything about music, but they must have been good 'cause they did well at the Fresno Music Festival.

Soloist M. Ketelsen rated superior, B. Nesalhous excellent, and B. Smith good.

Top: first row: W. Leighty, H. Green, L. Bivens, V. Kenefick, M. Hendricks, S. Crutchfield, D. Bourquin, J. Lovejoy, P. Depee, B. Lay. Second row: B. Skaggs, S. Garcia, E. Watanabe B. Turnage, C. Griffis, R. Purdy, M. Berry, B. Burgin, B. Land, C. Tzugaris, C. Wilson. Third row: R. Pitman, B. McClain, P. Harlan, J. Ingram. J. Pugh, S. Martin, V. Harris, B. Quessenberry, E. Mohnike, C. Dunham, M. Ketelsen, J. Rush, J. Keith, B. Gandy. Last row: Director W. Whalen. B. Smith, L. Martinez, D. Mayberry, R. Phillips, B. Haden, H. Huff, G. Avina, D. J. Henson, D. Tisthammer, D. Ferry, B. Harbin, J. Bourquin, F. Dunn, and R. Wallace.

Band 1-2-3 Hit It!

Anyone who tried to keep up with the L.H.S. Band this year had a mighty hard time, as I found out. All that bunch did was dash madly around from one thing to another. If they weren't playing for some program or concert, they were marching in a parade, playing at a game, or taking part in any of a hundred other activities that went on around these parts.

Band officers this year were Gary Fox, student director; Elva Morris, secretary; Eleanor Morris, treasurer; and Betty Jo Depee, drum majorette.

William Whalen was the instructor.

Above standing: Director Whalen, W. Hartman, D. Dixon, A. Black, D. Wilson, B. Pieschke, B. Weddle, D. Cary, C. Needham, D. J. Henson. Second row: R. D. Davis, Eleanor Morris, J. Givan, B. Nesalhous, Elva Morris, B. Keith, D. Maloy, K. Morris, B. Coolidge, B. Maden. Front row: J. Cosmey, B. Fridlund, P. Longacre, B. Gandy, J. Wilson, W. Davis, P. Patton, B. Kirkman, and M. Collins. Below: Here they strut their stuff. Left. Majorettes strut their stuff. Right: Cornet section cuts loose.

Amateur Hour

The "biggest little show" all year that's what they call the Sophomore Amateur Hour. But I don't rely on gossip (much) so I went to see for myself. Hiding behind a curtain where no one could see me, I heard P. Depew, mistress of ceremonies, go out to announce the first act. I couldn't see a thing it was so dark in there, but I heard the applause as J. Harth finished her act which won first prize. A novelty, "Ain't She Sweet," with K. Phillips, D. Maas, and B. Pieschke walked away with the second prize, and then J. Harth teamed with N. Specht in a dance routine and copped the next award.

About that time I sneezed and had to make a hasty retreat so I didn't get to see the rest. I heard people laughing and sneaking a look in the front door, I saw R. Scott doing some very funny impersonations.

When it was over I found that everyone agreed that the Sophs did all right.

Cardinals

As I went snooping around just before game time, the muscle men of Lindsay Hi were in the locker room getting last minute instructions from Coach Frank Skadan.

Then there was a roar as they came trotting onto the field led by Captain Phil Longacre.

Exeter just barely nosed us out by one touchdown. We put up a determined fight against Shafter, but they still managed to come out on top. Orosi, the next team we met, went down to defeat; but Dinuba thwarted our men. We came bounding back against Strathmore on Armistice Day and dumped them. In the muddy Woodlake game they won — after a hard battle.

Exeter	6	0	Lindsay
Shafter	33	6	Lindsay
Lindsay	13	12	Orosi
Dinuba	26	6	Lindsay
Lindsay	20	12	Strathmore
Woodlake	32	7	Lindsay

Clifford York was heralded as this year's most valuable man for his outstanding ability both offensively and defensively at the fullback post.

Cardettes

With coaches Bill Butterbaugh and Vernon Bridges guiding the Cardettes of LHS, these mighty men made a record of which they can be very proud.

Exeter was the first team to bow to our men. Then Shafter was narrowly edged out by one touchdown, followed by Orosi. Dinuba had us 19-0 at the end of the first half, but our determined Cardettes came roaring back in the second half. We worked Strathmore over with a 5 point margin. The "Little Red Birds" wound up a very successful season by handing another defeat to Woodlake.

Lindsay	18	6 Exeter
Lindsay	6	0 Shafter
Lindsay	13	0 Orosi
Dinuba	19	14 Lindsay
Lindsay	19	14 Strathmore
Lindsay	13	12 Woodlake

I wasn't the only one that thought we were pretty good because four Cardettes made All-County team: Captain, J. Shimasaki; a four year letterman playing right guard; left tackle, M. Sonoda, two year letterman, was an "A Bomb" on cleats; D. Maas, two year letterman, left end known for pass snagging; and B. Sellers, left halfback valuable throughout the year.

Cardinals
Our team is red hot!

The Cardinal hoopsters, coached by Bill Butterbaugh, made a marvelous showing this year and wound up a good season with a record that set them into second place.

The season of seven wins and three losses went like this:

Lindsay	41	Orosi	29
Orosi	51	Lindsay	50
Lindsay	43	Strathmore	41
Strathmore	38	Lindsay	32
Lindsay	54	Alpaugh	32
Lindsay	62	Alpaugh	40
Corcoran	43	Lindsay	31
Lindsay	40	Corcoran	24
Lindsay	37	Woodlake	20

Wes Bivens was chosen by his teammates to captain them through the '50 season. Wes collected 263 points for an outstanding showing. A good many times Bivens passed the 20 point mark in scoring during this season's games.

The honor of the most valuable man went to Lawrence Sherman.

Top: Lindsay man racks up another two points. Center: Mooneyham snatches ball from Orosi opponent. Bottom: Well guarded Hutz sinks one for us.

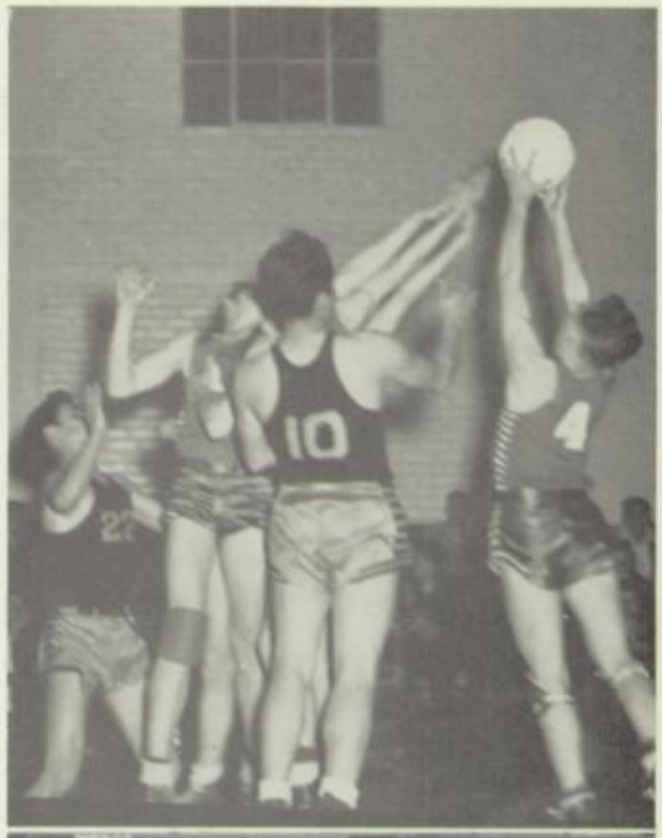
Cardettes Fight 'em team fight 'em

Vernon Bridges' Cardettes racked up a second place with six wins and four losses. The B class basketball team provided the fans with many a thrilling game right from the start of the season clear through to the end.

Here are the league scores for the '49-50 hoop season:

Orosi	38	Lindsay	26
Lindsay	40	Orosi	37
Lindsay	29	Strathmore	21
Strathmore	45	Lindsay	31
Lindsay	36	Alpaugh	19
Lindsay	52	Alpaugh	15
Corcoran	27	Lindsay	25
Corcoran	27	Lindsay	24
Lindsay	28	Woodlake	24

Clarence Depew and Dick Maas, the seniors of the squad, were unanimously voted by their teammates to receive joint honors for the captainship of this year's team. These two men totalled a good portion of the Cardette scoring.



Top: Maas leaps to snag ball. Center: Iriye jumps to deflect shot. Bottom: Depew, Cates, and Pistole scramble for rebound.

Left, seated: W. Bivens, E. Wilson, M. McCellan. Second row: A. Black, D. Hammer, L. Lopshire. Standing: Mr. Bridges, H. Thompson, Gary Fox, J. Aldridge, and Mr. Squire. Right, seated: J. Shimasaki, B. Sellers, D. Maloy. Second row: J. Horttor, W. Thompson, B. Maden, C. Harding. Standing: Mr. Bridges,, V. Keyes, J. Wood, B. Keith, and H. Thompson.

C. Crow, B. Bivens. Second row: J. Fuller, A. Quessenberry, G. Whisnand. Standing: Mr. Bridges, H. Thompson, R. Iriye, C. Quessenberry, and Mr. Squire.

'50 Tracksters

I never hear much about Lindsay's tracksters, but when I saw all those medals on display in the hall, I went out to see how good Coach Squire's prodigies really were:

Gary Fox, senior and four year letterman, was elected varsity captain. B. Sellers, winner of medal at 20-30 relays this year, was captain of the B class. R. Iriye, C class captain, was out for track the first time this year. The Sophs won the home meet with the seniors, a close second, followed by the ninth grade and juniors. A. Black paced the meet with 35 points which netted him high point honors.

These fellas get little recognition, but they're out there working just the same.

Shimasaki and Wilson clear hurdles. Sprint artist Black.

Baseball 9

If you want to see some really professional baseball, just come on out to the diamond with me.

The season is only half finished as I write this, because I have to make a deadline; but here are scores to date:

Orosi	4	14 Lindsay
Lindsay	0	3 Dinuba
Strathmore	1	9 Lindsay
Lindsay	4	5 Corcoran
Shafter	2	7 Lindsay
Lindsay	2	5 Woodlake

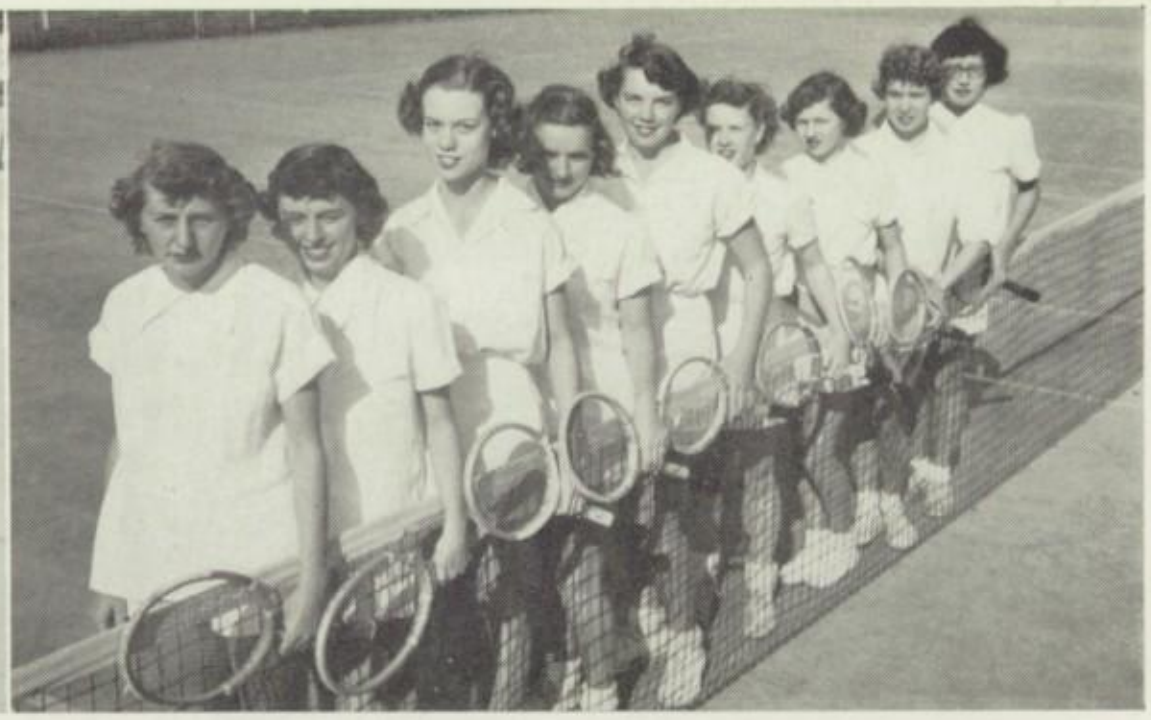
Avina, pitcher, was elected captain to lead Coach Skadan's Cards to a good season.

Longacre makes catch for a put out on first.

Avina gets ready to put another one across.

Mayberry puts ball on Mooneyham sliding in.

Pieschke cranks up.



M. Anderson, girls' captain. The ladder M. Anderson, J. Pollock, J. Rush, A. Carr, S. Cairns, M. Ketelsen, S. Lander, J. Givan and B. Yoshida.

Tennis - Champion Performers

Well, they did it again. Twice in a row Coach Hanigan has brought this hot tennis team to the wire as Champions of the Sierra League. I didn't have any trouble at all finding out about the team 'cause it was the talk of the town.

Lindsay	7	0 Corcoran
Lindsay	7	0 Orosi
Lindsay	7	0 Exeter
Lindsay	6	1 Strathmore

Besides league matches this red hot team burned up the courts all over the county, playing tirelessly day after day, coming out undefeated.

Lindsay	4	1 Porterville College
Lindsay	6	3 Visalia College
Lindsay	6	5 Hanford
Lindsay	6	1 Delano
Lindsay	10	5 Visalia
Lindsay	5	3 Porterville

Mae Anderson, captain, was Southern San Joaquin Valley girls' singles' champian and Don Fulbright, captain, and Lawrence Sherman were boys' doubles' champs. For once I'm speechless.

Left: Merlene and Mae spin racket. Center: B. Fridlund, M. Ketelsen, J. Pollock start out for afternoon's practice. Right: Anita and Don make a good doubles team.

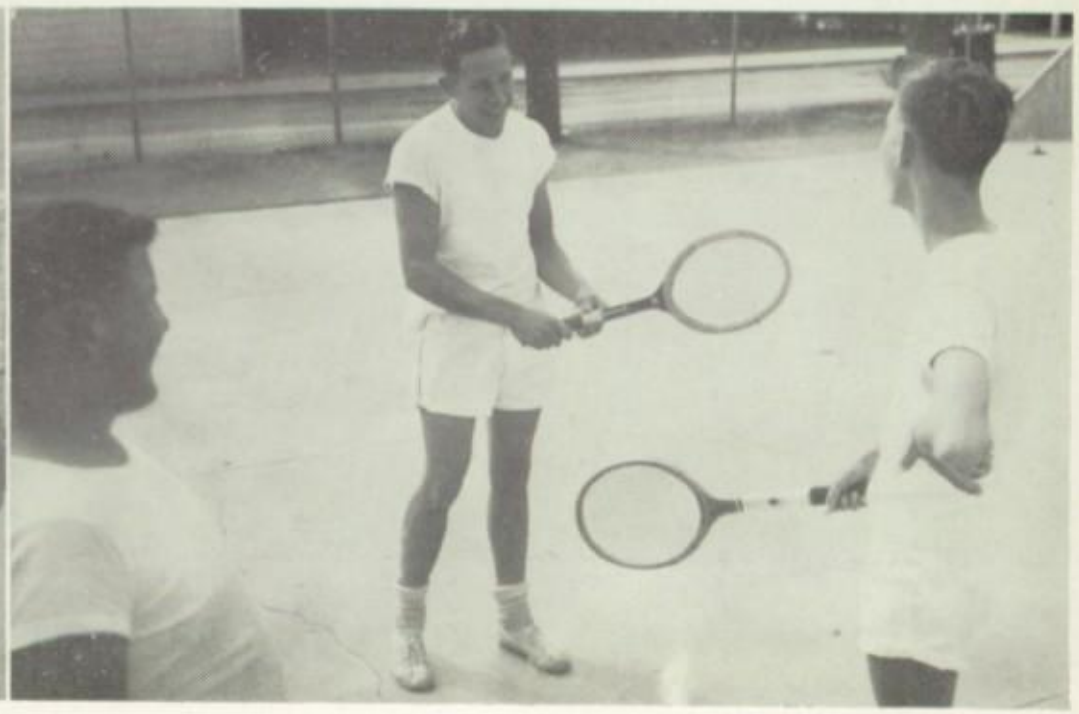
H. Anderson, R. Bryant, S. Cairns, and S. Lander congratulate each other. Lawrence and Randy discuss strategy with W. Davis, left.



First Class Athletes

Top left: Depew tries a close up shot. C. Dunham and B. Selby make like fish. Sellers gives the shot put a little toss. Center left: Little Iriye does his best in the toss up. Center: Aldridge goes after his man. Right: Where did it go? Lower left: He flies through the air. Center: Weddle is ready for the throw. Right: This is the B squad.

Seniors lay "50" in final resting place.

So Long

Miss Hitchcock
you've really been a super teacher.
Maybe I can sneak over to badminton sometime. And always remember that if you come over at quarter to six you can always have some leftovers to eat. That goes for Miss Waker too.

I'll always remember the days
you made Charlie and I share and count all the shoestrings in the basketroom. Everytime we made a bulletin board
you spurned our efforts &
said you could do better
I was woitably hurt. (Sob!)
Oh well that's life. I'll still miss you anyway after all who can dive as gracefully
as you.
